NOTICE TO PERSONS FILING FOR SPOUSES IF MARRIED LESS THAN TWO YEARS

Pursuant to section 216 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, your alien spouse may be granted conditional permanent resident status in the United States as of the date he or she is admitted or adjusted to conditional status by an officer of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. Both you and your conditional permanent resident spouse are required to file a petition, Form I-751, Joint Petition to Remove Conditional Basis of Alien's Permanent Resident Status, during the ninety day period immediately before the second anniversary of the date your alien spouse was granted conditional permanent residence.

Dear Michael Kamburowski:

You filed a Form I-751, Petition to Remove the Conditions of Residence on December 16, 1998.

This Service has been unable to establish that you have been admitted or adjusted as a conditional permanent resident. This office has conducted a search of our electronic records in an attempt to verify your status. These records do not contain information regarding your admission or adjustment as a conditional permanent resident. Evidence submitted in support of your I-751 petition included a copy of a passport page and a Form I-688B, Employment Authorization Document. However, these documents do not establish that you are a conditional permanent resident. The passport page submitted is the biographical data page, the page required is the one that contains your admission or adjustment stamp. Additionally, the Form I-688B, only provide you with authorization to work in this country.

A review of the evidence submitted with your filing, including a review of your immigration record and our electronic records, does not establish that you have been admitted or adjusted as a conditional permanent resident. This Service is unable to adjudicate your I-751 petition without additional evidence.

Title 8, Code of Federal Regulations, part 204.1(f)(2) states that, "The Service reserves the right to require submission of original documents when deemed necessary."

Please submit evidence of your lawful admission into the United States. The type of evidence required is your ORIGINAL PASSPORT that contains your admission or adjustment stamp indicating your immigrant classification, and the date of your admission/adjustment. A PHOTOCOPY OF YOUR PASSPORT WILL NOT BE ACCEPTABLE.

You may also submit an I-551, Alien Registration Card; or, any other type of correspondence from this Service that can establish your admission or adjustment into the United States as a "conditional" or "lawful" permanent resident. Submit any documentation you may have in your possession that was given to you by an American Consulate or a Service district office.

Original documentation submitted for consideration will be returned to you after it has been reviewed.

Direct your response along with the copy of this letter (enclosed) to:
